

RCM Quant

GRADUATE PROGRAMME 2024

Virtual Assessment Centre:
Wednesday 25th October

CONGRATULATIONS!

We are so thrilled to be inviting you to our Assessment Centre for RCM's Quant Graduate Programme.

Assessment Centre Overview

We are looking forward to meeting you via Microsoft Teams on Wednesday 25th October 2023. We will advise you on Tuesday 24th October what time you will be needed from on Wednesday AM. In the morning you will complete three short technical interviews. These will be with members of our Investment Quant, Core Quant, and Trading Strategy teams. You should be prepared to respond to brainteasers and answer questions that explore your knowledge of and interest in financial markets.

For those candidates that progress to the afternoon there will be two final round interviews with our senior management team (Head of Quant Modelling and Strategy, and Chief Strategy Officer). These interviews will vary per candidate, but will typically assess your general motivation and graduate programme. cultural fit. This will also be a good opportunity to ask any final questions about RCM or the opportunity.
